"The Hotel Triumph"

HOTEL KNICKERBOCKER Forty-Second Street at Broadway, New York

ACCESSIBILITY

Occupying the most commanding location in New York City, overlooking Times Square at Broadway and 42d Street, the Knickerbocker is exceptionally accessible to all the city's activities, whether of business, fashion or amusement. It has two private entrances to the Rapid Transit Subway, being equally accessible to either uptown or downtown trains. Surface cars radiate in all directions from the Knickerbocker's doors, and the Hotel has its own Taxicab Service.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Knickerbocker is palatial in size and absolutely fireproof in construction. It is fifteen stories in height, with two floors below the street level, and has accommodations for eight hundred guests, with 573 sleeping rooms and 400 private baths, so arranged that suites of any size desired may be had.

RESTAURANTS

The Cuisine Francaise of the Knickerbocker is pronounced by epicures the first in the land. The restaurant, cafe, tea room and grille are the most completely and beautifully appointed of any in the world, while the new terrace "Armenonville" restaurant is a new feature in open-air dining. In the banquet room, of spacious height and with an encircling gallery, 500 covers may be laid. Lavishly equipped private dining-rooms of various sizes accommodate from ten to seventy-five persons. The wine cellars are renowned for many famous vintages and special importations not found elsewhere in this country.

INNOVATIONS

It is the wish of the Proprietor of the Hotel Knickerbocker to think for its patrons and guests and to provide for the unexpected, and to this end the following innovations have been installed:

Thermos bottles for the serving of ice water to guests in their rooms. Turkish bath-rooms in each and every room. Individual tooth-powder and talcum. Sanitary tooth brushes, enclosed in sealed container. Night robes for ladies and gentlemen. Shoe brushes. Evening clothes for gentlemen—the requirements of any desired size and style receiving attention. Valet service.

Daily newspapers supplied to all guests in rooms, gratis. Electric fans in every sleeping-room in house. Most perfect floor service in America, every floor being operated by itself as a unit independent of the Main Office, from 6 A.M. to 1 A.M.

The requirements of guests given attention by floor waiter in uniform—no hall boys permitted to go to rooms.

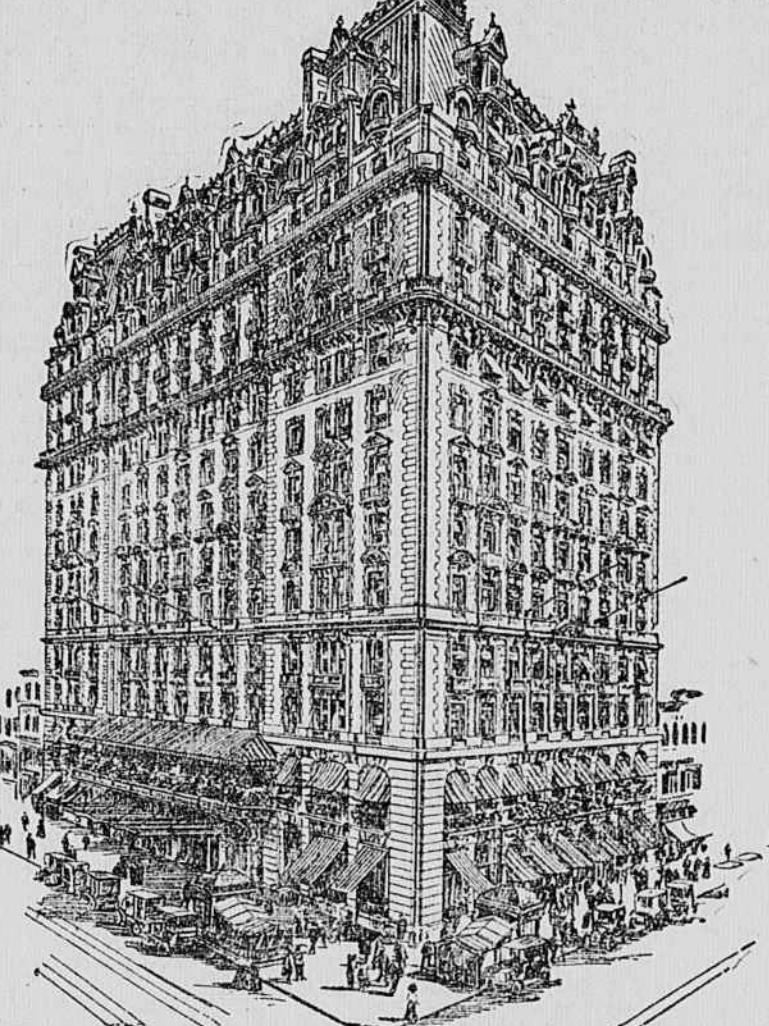

A novelty in service known as Cafe a la Florentine, served in silver and glass cups—an individual coffee made by guests themselves at the table without any exertion whatever on the part of the guest. Unique European Novelties for Souvenirs.

Every sleeping-room and parlor in the building is done over throughout twice a year. And as a finale, the most unexampled courtesy shown by all employees.

AT CROCKETT SPRINGS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Crockett Springs, Va., August 12.—The perfect days have lasted many to seek enjoyment out of dogs. Walking and horseback riding are probably the pastimes which have been most indulged in this week. Bridge, however, continued in popularity. The devotees of this all-absorbing game may be seen at all hours hovering over the tables and in such places as

Monday night the hotel was astir with excitement over the "tacky party." Many ludicrous and unique costumes were seen in the grand march, which opened the festivities of the evening. The three judges had some difficulty in deciding upon the most ridiculous as well as the best sustained costumes. The prizes were finally awarded to Mrs. Wesley Smith, of New York; Miss Ethel Thomas and Mrs. E. E. L. Martin, of Memphis, Tenn.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Deane, of Lynchburg, entertained at a bridge party. The game was played on the veranda of their cottage. Among Mrs. Deane's guests were Mrs. Eugene Nolte, of Sequin, Texas; Miss Thomas, of Crockett Springs; Miss Kendrick, of Roanoke; Miss Annie Hunnicutt, of Atlanta; Miss E. E. Matthews, of Philadelphia; Miss M. E. Davis, of Roanoke; Mrs. A. Gaudet, of New Orleans; Mrs. R. E. L. Martin, of Memphis; J. King, of Indianapolis; Dr. Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Montague, of Lynchburg; Miss Carter, of Norfolk, and others.

Monday morning Mrs. W. B. Gates, of Memphis, was hostess at one of the largest card parties of the season, even the howling alley for a game of bridge and five hundred. The first man's prize and ride was presented to Dr. J. R. Gilder, of New York. The woman's prize in "Five Hundred" fell to Miss Sallie Fishburne, of Roanoke, and the consolation to Miss Mary Trigg, of St. Louis.

Monday night Mrs. C. W. Holland and Mrs. Mears, of Eastville, varied the usual routine of the bridge parties by dispensing with the prizes and serving instead a salad and fruit supper in the hotel dining room for forty guests.

Mrs. Frank C. Wilson, of Savannah, Peed, of Norfolk, did the honors as hostess at the usual bridge party.

Twenty-five of the very little people were given a hayride and picnic Wednesday by Professor Heck, of the University of Virginia, who is here with his shaggy, Miss Pearl Heck, of St. Louis.

The custom of having a public German Friday evening has been revived, after a lapse of several years, and the one last night was well attended by the young people from the nearby towns.

The Richmond colony has been increased this week by the arrival of Mrs. W. W. Whitehurst, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitehurst, Misses Alice, Edward and Rosalie Milnes, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shaffer, Miss Aubrey Young and Misses Avie Young.
